Rajiv Malhotra is amazing. I think he is one of very few transformational figures of the 21st century. And in 20 to 50 years he will be recognized as the father of modern Dharam. People fear him because he speaks the truth.

Mr Rajiv Malhotra, my heartfelt pranam to you. You have awakened a whole generation of young Indians,taught them to love and respect their traditions in a new light. Your book "Being Different" have taught me many aspects of the uniqueness of India's Dharmic social traditions that make our country such a great and grand civilization.

Do your part. New people will jump in. If you are looking for a concrete theory on astronmy and dating of Mahabharata (I know there are many theories out there.. but 'concrete' is key word), read 'When did the Mahabharata War Happen - The Mystery of Arundhti' available on Amzon allover, or on Flipcart.com or Junglee.com in India. cheers!

oh my god!!! Thank you Mr Malhotra. I am a indian living the west and I always had great respect for American civilization, its fairness and rationality but that respect has been slightly eroded for the past 10 years but now when I watch this video I am bordering sadness and slight feeling of rage. 15 years ago I remember watching on a gospel channels and it showed pat robertson's son in calcutta who condecendingly says "Oh look such innocent people worshipping the satan" showing hindu gods.

his videos should be aired on popular Hindu channels like Aastha & Sanskar.
