Segamat. THURSDAY – A schoolboy found a bag which was left beside a bench at a park yesterday evening. The bag is now at the Segamat IPD Police Station and it contains a pencil case, a few school books as well as some marker pens initialed with ‘NPA’. The police believe the owner might be a teacher.

When questioned by the police, the schoolboy related the incident as he was then playing at the park with his two siblings.

“I saw a lady with short hair sitting on the bench while I was playing with my two sisters. She was putting the bag just beside the bench. She wore spectacles and she looked very pleasant. I think she is a Chinese who is around 45 years old. While we were playing there, she was sitting and writing on a notepad. When we returned a short while later, she was gone but the bag was there. So, I decided to send the bag to the police station.”

On Thursday morning, a police spokesman, ACP Rostam said that the owner may come to the police station to claim his or her bag but must produce proofs and evidences of ownership. ACP Rostam can be contacted at 07-7777444 or 012-6137098.
